19 APPENDICES

19.1 Appendix A: Domestic Junior Player Points System

The following by-law has been introduced (Sept 2013) and amended (Apr 2023) to assist in the task of making the junior domestic competition at Bellarine Peninsula Basketball Association Inc. (BPBA) both fair and competitive for all players and teams (this applies to Under 12 through to Under 18 competitions).

The primary aim of the domestic competition is for fun and exercise for all concerned. While BPBA By-laws require all representative players to also play in the domestic competition, it is essential that no one team should dominate in any grade as a result of being “stacked” with representative players.

What follows is a set of guidelines that all teams are required to follow. However, it must be understood that the intent is to prevent any one team from dominating in any grade, and the final decision on placement of a team (irrespective of rep points) will rest with the BPBA Board.

Criteria:

Domestic players are allocated a point value based on the level of representative basketball in which they are participating over the current VJBL season, aligned with the current domestic season (see Appendix B).

Points will be allocated to players who participate in the VJBL graded competition as follows:

1st Team for Bellarine Storm	3 points
2nd Team for Bellarine Storm	2 points
3rd Team for Bellarine Storm	1 point
4th Team for Bellarine Storm	0 points
VC - VCR for another VJBL club	4 points
VJL 1-3 for another VJBL club	3 points
VJL 4-6 for another VJBL club	2 points
VJL 7 and below for another VJBL club	1 point

Each team participating in BPBA’s domestic competitions (Under 12 – Under 18’s) is permitted a maximum of :

- Nine (9) points in Division 1
- Five (5) points in Division 2 or lower

Teams that go over the cap limits will only receive 2 points for any winning games instead of the normal 3 points..

Fill-in players:

Any player filling in for a domestic team, must fit within the team’s points tally.

If they exceed the points allowance, the team will forfeit the game. This forfeit does not carry a monetary penalty (unlike a walk-over where no game is played and a forfeit fine is payable).

For players ceasing to participate in Representative Basketball, their individual points’ value will reduce by one (1) point at six-monthly intervals as follows (until the player reaches a zero value):

- 30th Sept at conclusion of VJBL season in which player last participated, player is valued as per Appendix 1 ■ One (1) point value is then deducted at each of the following dates:

30th April of the year following the last VJBL season in which the player participated

30th September of the year following the last VJBL season in which the player participated
30th April (18 months after last VJBL season has concluded), final (if any) points are deducted.

Example 1:

A player ceases playing representative basketball (in the VJL 2 competition) mid-way through the 2013 VJBL season. This player carries a value of two points until April 2014, then reduces to one point valid until September 2014, after which the player no longer carries a points value.

Example 2:

Player: John Smith Last played: VC in 2012

At Sept 2012: 3points

At April 2013: 2points

At Sept 2013: 1point

At April 2014: zero value

If, in such a case, the player re-commences representative basketball, the points will be immediately re-applied as per Appendix B.

Where a player, who has only been playing domestic, commences playing representative basketball in the middle of a domestic season, no points will apply for the remainder of the said domestic season (points will apply for subsequent domestic season/s as per Appendix B).

BPBA will review instances of Rep players competing in domestic competitions lower than Division 2 in any age group. The guiding principle is that no team or player should dominate by virtue of rep skill levels.

Penalty:

A failure to comply with these provisions (i.e. a team playing a game with more than six (6) points) will result in the application of BPBA Inc. By-law 6.0 Ineligible Players.

Team Responsibilities:

Teams are required to comply with the following:

- Declare, on the domestic team entry form (or if entering teams on line, advise BPBA in writing), which players are also representative players, and the name and division of the rep team in which they play.
- If a team wishes to add a rep player after their team entry is submitted, they must notify the BPBA Office, prior to that player participating.

BPBA Responsibilities:

BPBA will:

- Review all entries, giving consideration to team/player points, and representations from Clubs/Teams. This may include performing cross-checks with rep player lists from the Bellarine Storm Program, etc. Based on this review the Committee will assign teams to an appropriate grade;
- Review team gradings from time-to-time, giving consideration to team representations, team performance within their current grade and changes to rep points during the season.

The guiding principle is that no team should dominate or be dominated in any grade, and BPBA reserves the right to regrade teams in the interest of fair competition.
