

2024 SEASON

Sunday 12th May 2024

CW Bellarine v Bulleen 12:00pm

CM Bellarine v Keysborough 2:00pm

Happy Mother's Day

FROM THE FRONT OFFICE

Happy Mother's Day and a special welcome to all our Mum's here, for our Championship Double Header.

Mum's are the unsung heroes behind all our players, particularly in junior basketball, driving the kids to training, washing their uniforms, driving them all over the countryside to various venue's across the State, being a part-time nurse when we get injured, so we owe them heaps.

Thank you to all the Mum's behind the scenes, for all you do for all the players domestic or representative.

Now, to this weekend's games and we should be in for some very entertaining clashes.

Our YL Men are off to Wallan Saturday night, whilst our Championship Men meet Melbourne Uni.

Sunday our YL Women are visiting Blackburn whilst our Championship teams have a double header. Congratulations to Piper Copeland in that game as she makes her 50th appearance for the Storm.

Our Women kick things off at midday and for the first time in 3 weeks, it's not a double header weekend for them, with just the one game for the weekend, so they should be well rested to take on Bulleen.

Last weekend, we saw a cracking battle against Warrnambool, which we finally came out on top, before facing Wyndham on Sunday, suffering our first loss in 5 starts.

Expect the Storm to come back hard today and push for the victory.

In the second game of the day, our Championship Men should be full of confidence after inflicting Wyndham's first defeat of the season to score a big win.

We match up really well against Keysborough and have had some great battles across our meetings in Division 1 and Championship and today should be no exception.

Big V Youth Player of the Week

Whilst both our Youth League teams didn't have memorable results last round, there was still one performance that earned our POTW for Round 7.

Summer Field finished with 15 points and 13 boards in their shock loss to Surfcoast

Big V Champ Player of the Week

This week's Championship POTW has been knocking on the door of picking up this gong and on the weekend, Courtney Strait broke the door down and collected the POTW for R4.

Courtney was on fire against Warrnambool on Saturday night, instrumental in a big win with 29 points and 12 rebounds and then on Sunday contributed 13 points to help keep us in touch with Wyndham.

MILESTONES

Congratulations to Piper Copeland, who brings up game 50 for the Storm on Sunday afternoon at Blackburn.

Piper has been a key part of our Youth League Women's team since its inception and is now one of the senior members in the team.

In 2024, Piper is averaging 12 ppg and 5 assists, which are nice numbers stacked against her
