FROM THE FRONT OFFICE

Hello everybody, welcome to another bustling weekend of Big V Basketball this weekend, with successive double headers on both days.

Saturday night sees our Championship teams in a home double against Sunbury, with our Men kicking it off at 6:30, with the Women to follow.

Our Men had an up and down weekend last round, scoring a good win on the road against Melbourne Uni, before falling to Keysborough on Sunday.

On the other side of the coin, our Championship Women caused one of the upsets of the season, disposing of the previously undefeated Bulleen.

Tonight's contests promise to be every bit as entertaining as last weeks games, so we should be in for an exciting night tonight.

Whilst you'll see our usual Court Announcer Mark Brunger around tonight, we welcome Levi Falvey who is a young man keen to forge a career in sports media and will be in charge of the calling tonight.

Welcome Levi, it's great to have you on board with the Storm!

Sunday sees a YL double and once again, our Men will hit the court first at midday as we welcome Gippsland United to the Bellarine Sports Centre for the very first time in Big V Basketball.

In the second game, our YL Women will host Mornington in what shapes as an important contest for both sides, with the Storm sitting second on the ladder, whilst Mornington sit right below them in third place, so expect a hard game in this one.

Off the court, keep a look out on our Socials next week as we kick off our 2024 BPBA Major Raffle. This raffle is an important fundraiser for our Association, to help offset our lack of court space and try to keep a lid on costs for our Clubs and players.

There's some great prizes on offer, with the major prize being a $2,500 travel voucher from Helloworld Travel Drysdale, F45 Training Drysdale and a $1,000 gift voucher from the team at E & S Trading Geelong. Be in it to win it!!

Big V Youth Player of the Week

Mitch Smith is beginning to make this award his own right now, with a string of impressive performances to begin the 2024 Season.

He was in scintillating form last Saturday night with a bag of 38 points along with 10 boards against Wallan to again be our YL POTW. The effort also broke the YL Men scoring record for the Storm, which he only broke a couple of weeks ago!

Big V Champ Player of the Week

This weeks Championship POTW has been close a couple of times, only to be pipped by other performances.

However, this week, Nick Velasquez gets the nod for his weekends efforts with 17 points in Saturday night's win against Melbourne Uni, before leading the way on Sunday, despite the loss, with 22 points against Keysborough on Sunday.
