

2024 SEASON

Saturday 27th July 2024
CM Bellarine v Western Port
6:00pm

FROM THE FRONT OFFICE

Hello again from. Storm HQ.

Tonight sees our Championship Men play their second last home game for the regular season against Western Port.

It's fair to say that the second half of the season hasn't been kind to our Championship Men, who were looking in good shape for a big finals tilt.

However, injuries to key players in the second half of 2024 have put a stick in the spokes of the bike, being undermanned for the majority of the second half of the season.

With just two games left in the regular season, it appears unlikely we'll make the Finals, however, we can still finish the season with a couple of wins over the next two weeks.

Meanwhile, tonight is an important one for our YL Women as they travel to Mornington for an Elimination Final. Sadly, after last weeks shock loss to Surfcoast, our ladies missed out on this final being at Storm HQ.

Regardless of that, we're still in the hunt, with a win keeping us alive. Good luck to David Smith, David Tripodi and the team tonight, we'll be right behind you.

Our Championship Women are in. Action tonight in Sunbury as they take on the Jets and with a win they can all but lock in second place and a Home Final in a couple of weeks.

Unfortunately, the 2024 season has reached the end for our YL Men, after a tough season, where injuries also played a big role across the season.

To Coaches Nick Stamatopoulos, Baden Giblett, Christian Sanderson, Manager Michelle Giblett and all of our players, we say thank you for your efforts across the season and for the way you've represented the Bellarine Storm across 2024.

GO STORM!!

Big V Champ Player of the Week

Courtney Strait is making a late charge to the line in our Championship Big V POTY Award, picking up the POTW for Round 15.

Courtney's performance with 23 points, including 3 of 4 from downtown was instrumental in our Champ Women's win over potential finalist Pakenham last Sunday. That was on the back of top scoring with 16 the night before against McKinnon.

Big V YL Player of the Week

The final winner of the YL POTW is a young man who arrived at the Storm this season, all the way from WA and has fitted into the side very nicely.

Ashton Lantzke played possibly his best game for the season last Sunday as he led the boys to a win to wrap up their season, with 14 points and 11 boards.

Our YL POTY will be named at our Senior Presentation Day on Sunday 1st September
